● THE WEEK

Everyone is in town.

Only one evening is free.

7–8 OCTOBER

25^k

TOKEN2049 Singapore. 25,000 attendees and 800+ side events in 2025 — every one of them competing for the same badges.

9–11 OCTOBER

300^k

Singapore Grand Prix. The city's most expensive weekend: 300,000+ across the race weekend, hotels full, dinners booked out.

SATURDAY 10 OCTOBER

I

The gala. The one evening between the conference and the race — and the only black-tie room of the week.

PART OF TOKEN2049 WEEK

INDEPENDENTLY ORGANISED · NOT ENDORSED BY TOKEN2049

Since 2021, the same evening in the world's best rooms.

Monaco, Dubai, Hong Kong, New York, Portofino, Porto Cervo, Forte dei Marmi, Courchevel, St. Moritz. Each edition is private and invitation-only: a red-carpet arrival, a seated gala dinner, a headline performance, an after-party.

● WHO IS IN THE ROOM

340 guests.

Not 25,000 badges.

PROFILE

HNWI and family offices, private-banking clients, founders and executives, luxury travellers. Core age 35–65. In Singapore for the race, in town for the conference.

HOW THEY ARRIVE

The partners bring their own lists — Tatler, Chopard, The Capitol Kempinski, Royal Caviar Club, DENZA each seat their guests. The rest of the room buys a seat at $1,100–3,000.

WHY IT MATTERS TO YOU

The capital that never goes to side events. Allocators, not traders — the people your institutional desk wants at a table for three hours, with a reason to stay.

Three ways in.
